Subject: ICRC Detainee Notification - 30 March 2007

NOTE: Please disregard an earlier version of this message.

PROTECTED B

GENEV: To Karim Amegan, Terry Cormier and Eric Walsh

(fewer than five persons.)

As per detainee policy authorised by the Minister of National Defence on 27 May 2005, I am forwarding for onward transmission to the International Committee of the Red Cross in Geneva information regarding REDACTED The individuals were detained on 31 March 2007 and transferred to the NDS on the same day.

This is also in line with the undertaking MND outlined in his REDACTED REDACTED The information includes, where possible, the following: Last name / First name / Father's name / Grandfather's name / Sex / Age / Identification Serial Numbers / Place of Birth / and general state of health or physical condition upon transfer [any other info].

[Details were provided regarding fewer than five detainees detained in March and transferred to the NDS on the same day.]

ALL: please note the addition of district/location of detention as new information to facilitate the work of the ICRC

KABUL: As per discussions held in Ottawa and in GENEV (REFTEL IRH0203 of 12JUN06 attached, IDR-0512 of 2JUN06), we would request that KABUL also transmit the information below by means of a diplomatic note to the ICRC.

KAND PRT - As per the February 2007 exchange of letters between the Afghan Independent Human Rights Commission (AIHRC) and Joint Task Force Afghanistan (JTF-A), grateful if JTF-A and the KANDH-PRT could ensure that this information is provided to the AIHRC. Please acknowledge receipt of this message and notify us as soon as the AIHRC has been provided with the information.

ALL: The CF have endeavoured to provide as much information as the person in custody is willing to divulge voluntarily recognising that it not uncommon for Afghans in custody to be reluctant to provide additional information. Furthermore, normal operational security considerations will also apply when it comes to indicating specific location of detention. Place of arrest and place of transfer are not provided due to operational security requirements.

Grateful that you acknowledge receiving this message and that you notify us as soon as ICRC has been made aware.
